Defendant.)
16 _____)

17 On August 9, 2012, defendant Joseph Beall was released on a $100,000 unsecured bond
18 to reside in the third party custody of an individual who signed his bond. As a condition of 19 release, Mr. Beall was placed on electronic monitoring. He was originally permitted to leave his 20 residence for medical or legal visits only. Mr. Beall has been fully compliant with all of his 21 conditions of release. As such, he requests that the Court modify his conditions such that he be 22 permitted to leave his residence from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, for the 23 primary purpose of securing employment. The curfew shall be subject to modification by 24 pretrial services to accommodate Mr. Beall's employment schedule. Pretrial services officer K.J.
25 Gibson supports this modification, and the government does not object to the modification.
